Musings by Rev Scott

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

This week our liturgical colour turns to green. We now enter the season of Sundays after Pentecost. Long ago this season was known as 'Ordinary Time'. I think the feeling was that the word 'ordinary' was a bit, well, ordinary.

I find this to be an exciting time in our liturgical calendar. Green reminds me of growth and flourishing. Hope abounds and new things are possible. It is a time to explore and unpack that which God is revealing to us, through the Holy Spirit.

As I write this edition of Musings, I am sitting at my desk, on retreat, listening to the birds and looking out to the stunning greenery and water view. I am excited to progress the Visioning Day results and am encouraged by the enthusiasm to see action take place. Could it be love in action that attracts others to see what the Christian Faith has to offer in a time of disconnection and growing cost of living stress?

God's peace, Scott

Psalm 33.1-12

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous:
for it befits the just to praise him.

Give the Lord thanks upon the harp:
and sing his praise to the lute of ten strings.

O sing him a new song:
make sweetest melody, with shouts of praise.

For the word of the Lord is true:
and all his works are faithful.

He loves righteousness and justice:
the earth is filled with the loving-kindness of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made:
and their numberless stars
by the breath of his mouth.

He gathered the waters of the sea as in a water-skin:
and laid up the deep in his treasures.

Let the whole earth fear the Lord:
and let all the inhabitants of the world
stand in awe of him.

For he spoke, and it was done:
he commanded, and it stood fast.

The Lord frustrates the counsels of the nations:
he brings to nothing the devices of the peoples.

But the counsels of the Lord shall endure for ever:
the purposes of his heart
from generation to generation.

Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord:
the people he chose to be his own possession

Child protection training

All people working with children or in leadership roles in the Anglican Church must complete Child Protection Training every 3 years.

Child protection training can be completed online:

www.anglicanchurchsq.org.au/cppt.

If you encounter any difficulties with the program, please let me know.

Please notify the office once it is completed so that we can add it to our records and confirm the diocese has recorded it.

If you would prefer to complete the child protection training in a face-to-face setting, please let me know.

Pastoral care

On the 8th of May, Coral Brycker, Dawn Williams and I were able to visit Ann and Dave Stannard at Lota House. They are such dear parishioners, faithful until Dave could no longer drive. Dave used to make Christmas puddings and played Santa Claus many times.

Their move to Lota House was sudden as they had news of two rooms available on the Thursday and had to move in on the next Tuesday. They go to the chapel where St Paul's Church worship now.

Ann was so pleased to see us and we had a lovely chat with Ann, and Dave turned up a little later after exercises. He did not know us, but we told him and gave him a hug.

I would like to say thank you to Rob Haskins who faithfully took them communion at their home.

We plan to visit again and include others if they would like to come.

Blessings Lyn

In the spotlight: Wardens

Helen Stanbrook

Rector's warden
Parish nominator

Phone: 0409 498 286

Charmaine Dyer

People's warden
Parish nominator

Phone: 0431 458 642

APWBwardens@bigpond.com

Helen and Charmaine are our parish wardens. Helen was appointed as Rector's warden by Fr Scott at our AGM in February. Charmaine was elected as People's warden. Both are also parish nominators.

Our wardens, together with Fr Scott, are responsible for all aspects of parish life. The wardens represent the people of the parish on Parish Council and will do their best, with God's help.

Both wardens meet with Fr Scott on the third week of the month, the week before Parish Council meet.

They are available to the members of the congregation for any information, complaints, prayer points, praise points or suggestions for the parish.

General notices

LOST

Jan and Bill Guttormsen lost their much-loved small esky on Market day and would love to find it if possible. It is small army green soft esky with a zipper large enough to hold a six pack. If anyone finds it, please contact Bill or the office.

TIDINGS LAYOUT

Future issues of the Tidings will include parishioner profiles, information on what missions our parish is supporting and more information about what is happening in the parish. Please feel free to send your contributions in. Photos of different parish activities and people would also be appreciated.

PARISH PRATTLES

Did you know that our parish has a private Facebook page called Parish Prattles? We currently have 94 members and some interesting chats. As it's a private group, only the members can see who's in the group and what they post. If you would like to join the group, click on the link here: Parish Prattles and ask to join, or contact the office.
